ON CARS INSTEAD OF CAMELS OVER WAVES INSTEAD OF HOT SANDS SHRINERS JOURNEY EASTWARD

With covered cars instead of camel caravans and railroad rails instead of hot sands, the faithful of El Malda shrine will start on its pilgrimage to Mecca Friday evening over the G. H. & S. A. The El Paso Shriners will go to Galveston, with a short stopover in San Antonio, and will sail from Galveston on the Clyde steamer Mohawk for Havana, where a visit to the wreck of the Maine and Matanzas will be a part of the program. The Shriners will stop in New York on their way to Rochester, arriving there in time for the opening of the imperial council sessions on July 10.

The Two Attractions.
The two attractions on the trip will be the carload of burros that have already been shipped to Rochester and W. Watkins. The burros will attract attention for their beauty and vocal attainments; Watkins will be the attraction for his fine Irish brogue—acquired in Wales, but what's the difference. Watkins is a combination of Bob Page as to height, Harghey McLean for wit and W. H. McCullough for general disposition. The combination will be hard to beat and the El Paso Shriners, plus the burros and Watkins, expect to take Rochester like Orozco took Juarez. The Shriners and their friends will leave Friday evening at 8 o'clock in a private car and will be joined in Rochester by a number of local Shriners who will make the trip by rail because of the time consumed in the water travel.

Those Who Will Go.
The party which will leave Friday evening will include the following: J. M. Wyatt, W. Watkins, T. C. Lea, W. H. McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Barada, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hixson, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Stewart, Miss Taylor, Mrs. Grebe, Mrs. S. Barbee, Mrs. S. G. Burn of Chihuahua, A. W. Cheesman of Shreveport, J. L. Haintz, John Sullivan.

WINDOW CURTAIN FIRE CAUSES DEPARTMENT RUN

A blazing curtain in a room at the Clyde rooming house, on the corner of Second and Stanton streets, called out the fire department Friday morning at 11:10, who extinguished the blaze without any loss to other property. The curtain is supposed to have caught from the furnace of a pumber who was working in the room.
